Gear Up Thomson Reuters Accounting Seminar

The 2018 Gear Up accounting course is designed to give practitioners the information they need to provide audit, review, compilation and preparation engagements for small and mid-sized companies. This course is more than just an update and covers a wide variety of topics including core concepts related to financial reporting and accounting and review services, in addition to critical updates to professional standards. This course also features many exhibits, examples and other practical takeaways to help you implement the content presented. 2017 topics include SSARS 21 implementation and newer SSARS standards 22 and 23 review, core concepts in financial statement presentation and disclosure, practice management and quality control issues, specialized practice areas (divorce engagements, personal financial statements and industry-specific risks and considerations) and special considerations in performing audits and reviews including using and improving analytical procedures and understanding fraud risks.

This course is eligible for CLE credit. Please ask at the registration table for the form needed to request reporting.
