2021 Mini Tax Potpourri Course Description

Richard Furlong, Senior Stakeholder Liaison will present a 2-hour IRS update in preparation for the 2022 tax season.

James F. Tice, EA “Managing Your Tax Season”

Tax season is typically the busiest part of your practice with sometimes unbearable workloads. This course will help you conquer the busy season by reducing stress while finding ways to improve client satisfaction and workflow. This practice management program will focus on integrating all the tax season processes and providing better service to clients, having staff work more effectively, generating additional revenue, and having more fun.
